CONTACT REPORT

PROJECT: CARBONIT

Date of Contact: 5 January 1954 Approximate length: 1½ Hrs.

1730 - 1900

Present: Agent (s): CARBONITATE

Case Officer (s): C C and C C

(1) Agent submitted written reports on (main subjects):

(2) Agent reported orally (summarize briefly; if detailed rept. necessary, submit on separate sheet and attach to this form)

1. A written report is being prepared by C C. General theme of report is the security situation in Germany. Several minor aspects of CARBONIT security interests were mentioned, such as the recent visit of the Soviet Ambassador to West Berlin, the recent visit of the German Chancellor to West Berlin, and the recent visit of the German Foreign Minister to West Berlin.

C C also mentioned that she had been approached by a man who was revealed (apparently a civilian) to be a member of the East German secret police. This man informed her that he had been in contact with her husband in West Germany soon, that her husband had been asked to meet him, and that they were to discuss some "business."

2. CARBONIT stated that C C had received another call from the SSD and this time they were pressuring her to appear in East Germany at a certain spot and that if she did not turn up it would go hard on her husband. CARBONITATE had instructed her to get in touch with her caseofficer.
